

COMPUTING, DATA SCIENCE, AND PHYSICS (CDSP)

CDSP 999 Continuous Enrollment (0 Credits)

For CDSP graduate students who have completed all required coursework and thesis or dissertation credits to maintain active student status while finishing and defending their thesis or dissertation. Students enrolled in CDSP 999 retain access to selected university resources, such as libraries, email, and laboratories, while not registering for additional credit-bearing courses. This status is intended for students who need only to complete graduate research requirements and do not require full-time enrollment.
