

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION DEPARTMENTS

Academic Departments

The programs of study for each program can be found on the corresponding department page.

Curriculum and Instruction (C&I)

C&I offers M.A.Ed. programs in Curriculum and Instruction that include concentrations in Elementary Education, Secondary Education; Special Education, English as a Second Language (ESL)/ Bilingual Education, and Literacy Leadership. Certificate programs are also offered.

Educational Policy, Planning & Leadership (EPPL)

EPPL offers M.Ed. programs in Educational Leadership with concentrations in PK-12 Administration and Higher Education Administration; doctoral programs with concentrations in Curriculum & Educational Leadership, Higher Education Administration, Gifted Education, Executive K-12 Administration, Executive Higher Education, Executive Gifted Education, and Executive International School Leadership. A certificate program in Educational Leadership is also offered.

School Psychology & Counselor Education (SPACE)

SPACE offers M.Ed. programs in Counseling - School and Clinical Mental Health (with specializations in Addictions, Relationship, Marriage & Family, & Military/Veterans); School Psychology with M.Ed. and Ed.S. options; and a Ph.D. program in Counselor Education. In addition, graduate students can pursue an online M.Ed. in Clinical Mental Health Counseling, Clinical Mental Health & Military Veterans Counseling, and School Counseling.